Regulation 35 was amended by SI 36 of 2010 effective 1 April 2010

36. (1) Tax on goods and services shall be calculated on the receipted amount of the goods or services as follows:

(a) for goods and services liable to 10 %

(b) for goods and services liable to 12 %

$$\text{Receipted Amount} - \left(\frac{\text{Receipted Amount}}{1.12} \right)$$

(c) for goods and services liable to 15 %

(2) For the purpose of these regulations, “receipted amount” means the “price” charged for the goods or services which gets its meaning from Section 2(1) of the Revenue Administration Act 2009.

(3) The tax on services related to item 20 of Schedule 2, Part 1 shall be calculated on the “entity’s global amount”; this is the difference between the total amount wagered on gambling events for the tax period, and the total prizes paid or provided for the tax period as follows:

(b) the definition of "payments received" in regulation 35(1)(b) and (3) also includes, except in relation to services listed in Part 2 of Schedule 2, and item 8(8) of Part 1 of Schedule 1 any payment received for tax in respect of the goods or services but does not include payments received for passenger service fee, departure tax or any other like charges; and

Repealed by SI 36 of

the definition of “payments received” and “fees charged” in regulation 35(2) and (3) also includes, in relation to services listed in Part 1 of Schedule 2 only, any payment received or due for tax in respect of the services; and

(c) “Goods” referred to in Part 2 of Schedule 1 means all types of goods manufactured by that person unless specifically excluded.

Registration
And returns

37. (1) every person -

- (a) who on the commencement of these Regulations becomes liable to tax in respect of services or goods manufactured in Seychelles shall, within 15 days of the publication of these Regulations in the Gazette;
- (b) Who, after such commencement becomes liable to tax in respect of services or goods manufactured in Seychelles shall, within 15 days after the end of the month in which he becomes liable,

Register with the Commissioner.

(2) Any person registered with the Commissioner under regulation 38 (1) of the Trades Tax Regulations, 1997 is deemed to have complied with sub-regulation (1) of this regulation.

(3) For the purpose of assessing the tax on goods manufactured in Seychelles, other than goods produced in Seychelles, the manufacturer of those goods shall submit to the Commissioner in such form as may be provided by the Commissioner a true and accurate monthly return of the quantity and sales revenue of goods sold or otherwise disposed of or used by him within the month covered by the return and if no goods are sold or otherwise disposed of or used, a return to that effect.

(4) For the purpose of assessing the tax on goods manufactured in Seychelles, being goods produced in Seychelles, any person who purchases from the producer those goods for resale to any other person or to be used by the purchaser for processing or manufacture for the purposes of trade shall submit to the Commissioner in such form as may be provided by the Commissioner a true and accurate monthly return of the quantity and sales revenue of goods sold or used or otherwise disposed of by him within the month covered by the return and if no goods are sold or used or otherwise disposed of by him a return to that effect.

(5) For the purpose of assessing the tax on services the person providing the services shall submit to the Commissioner in such form as may be provided by the Commissioner a true and accurate monthly return of payments received, within the month covered by the return, for the services and if no payments are received a return to that effect.

(6) A return under sub-regulation (3), (4) or (5) shall be submitted to reach the Commissioner before the 21st day of the month following the month in respect of which the return is submitted and shall be accompanied by the amount of tax due for the period covered by the return.

(7) The Commissioner may, for reasons which he deems sufficient, permit a person to whom sub-regulation (3), (4) or (5) applies to furnish returns otherwise than monthly.

(8) The Commissioner may call for any particulars and information he may require for the assessment of the tax.

(9) A taxpayer may apply to the Commissioner to extend the time for the submission of returns under sub-regulation (3), (4) or (5) and the Commissioner may allow or reject the application.

38(1) Tax is due -

(a) on goods manufactured in Seychelles when the goods are sold, otherwise disposed of, resold or used, as the case may be;

(b) on goods imported into Seychelles in accordance with Part 4 of these regulation;

(c) on services when payment for the services is received or in any other case 365 days after the services have been rendered unless:

(i) the supplier of the services remains unpaid at that time and has declared the debt unrecoverable;

(ii) a declaration to that effect is made in a prescribed form; and

(iii) the Commissioner is satisfied that a reasonable attempt has been made to recover the debt.”

(2) The tax is payable on or before the 21st day of the month following the month in which the liability fall due.

Regulation 38 was amended by SI 36 of 2010

Date tax due and payable

38. (1) the tax is due -

- (a) On goods manufactured in Seychelles when the goods are sold, otherwise disposed of, resold or used, as the case may be;
- (b) On services when payment for the services is received and in any case, 90 days after the service has been rendered.

Repealed by SI 36 of 2010

(2) The tax -

- (a) On goods manufactured in Seychelles is payable on or before the 21st day of the month following the month in which the tax is due;
- (b) On services is payable on or before the 21st day of the month following the month in which the tax is due.

Penalty and Additional Tax

39. If any tax remains unpaid after the time when it becomes payable under Regulation 38 a penalty of 10% of the tax due is payable and, in addition, additional tax shall be due and payable at the rate of 20 per centum per annum or part thereof, on the amount of tax unpaid, computed from that time but the Commissioner may, in any case, for reasons that he considers sufficient, remit the penalty or additional tax or part thereof.

Assessment

40. (1) The Commissioner shall, on the return and such other particulars and information submitted under regulation 37 (3), (4), (5) and (8), as the case may be, and on any other information in his possession assess the tax.

(2) If -

- (a) Any person makes default in submitting a return under regulation 37; or
- (b) The Commissioner is not satisfied with the return submitted by a person; or
- (c) The Commissioner has reason to believe that a person who has not submitted a return under regulation 37 is liable to payment of tax in respect of any goods manufactured in Seychelles or services,

The Commissioner may make an assessment to the best of his judgment.

(2) The Commissioner may serve a notice of assessment made in terms of this regulation on the taxpayer and the notice of assessment shall specify -

- (a) The sum on which the tax is payable, or at the discretion of the Commissioner, only the sum on which tax has not been paid;
- (b) The amount of tax which the Commissioner has determined is payable by the taxpayer;
- (c) The amounts of the penalty and additional tax for late payment of tax due;
- (d) The period covered by the notice;
- (e) The date of issue of the notice; and
- (f) The date allowed for payment of the amount outstanding shown in the notice.

(4) Where the Commissioner issues a notice of assessment under sub-regulation (3), the taxpayer shall not be liable to additional tax for late payment under regulation 39 from the date of issue of the notice to the date allowed for payment appearing in the notice.

(5) A taxpayer who has been served with a notice of assessment under sub-regulation (3) may object to the assessment in the manner provided in Division 2 of this Part.

(6) The production of a notice of assessment served under sub-regulation (3), or of a document under the hand of the Commissioner purporting to be a copy of that notice, is evidence that the amount of tax, penalty and additional tax specified in the notice became due and payable over the period specified in the notice.

Amendment of assessment

41.(1) Subject to this regulation, the Commissioner may, at any time amend any assessment by making such alterations therein or additions thereto as he thinks necessary, notwithstanding that tax may have been paid in respect of the assessment.

(2) Where a taxpayer has not made to the Commissioner a full and true disclosure of all the material facts necessary for his assessment, and there has been an avoidance of tax, the Commissioner may –

(a) where he is of the opinion that the avoidance of tax is due to fraud or evasion, at any time; or

(b) In any other case, within six years from the date when the notice of assessment was issued in accordance with regulation 40

Amend the assessment by making such alterations therein or additions thereto as he thinks necessary to correct the assessment.

(3) Where a taxpayer has made to the Commissioner a full and true disclosure of all the material facts necessary for his assessment, and an assessment is made after that disclosure no amendment of the assessment increasing the liability of the taxpayer in any particular shall be made after the expiration of three years from the end of the year in which the assessment was made.

(4) Subject to subsection (6), no amendment effecting a reduction in the liability of a taxpayer under an assessment shall be made after the expiration of three years from the end of the year in which the assessment was made.

(5) Where an assessment has, under this regulation, been amended in any particular, the Commissioner may, within three years from the end of the year in which the amended assessment was made, make in or in respect of that particular, such further amendment as, in his opinion, is necessary to effect such reduction in the liability of the taxpayer under the assessment as is just.

(6) Where an application for an amendment in his assessment is made by a taxpayer within three years from the end of the year in which the assessment was made, and the taxpayer has supplied to the Commissioner within that period all information needed by the Commissioner for the purpose of deciding the application, the Commissioner may amend the assessment notwithstanding that at the time of amendment the period referred to in subsection (4) has elapsed.

(7) Nothing contained in this regulation shall prevent the amendment of any assessment in order to give effect to the decision upon any appeal, or its amendment by way of reduction in pursuance of an objection made by a taxpayer pending any appeal.

(8) Except as otherwise provided every amended assessment shall be an assessment for the purpose of these Regulations.

Division 2 – Objections and Appeals

42.(1) Subject to sub-regulation (2), a taxpayer dissatisfied with an assessment made under regulation 40 may, within sixty days of the date of issue of the notice of assessment, serve on the Commissioner an objection in writing against the assessment stating fully and in detail the grounds for his objection.

Objections

(2) Where the Commissioner has amended an assessment under regulation 41 the taxpayer shall have no further right of objection than he would have had if the amendment had not been made, except to the extent that by reason of the amendment a fresh liability in respect of any particular is imposed on him or an existing liability in respect of any particular is increased.

(3) Where a taxpayer has furnished a return, he may, within sixty days of the date of the receipt of the return by the Commissioner, serve on the Commissioner an objection in writing against the sum disclosed in that return for the assessment of the tax stating fully and in detail the grounds for his objection.

43. The Commissioner shall consider the objection made under regulation 42 and may either disallow it, or allow it either wholly or in part, and shall serve the taxpayer with written notice of his decision.

Decision of Commissioner

Application
for appeal

44.(1) A taxpayer dissatisfied with the decision of the Commissioner made under regulation 43 may, within sixty days after the date of service of the written notice of the decision, request the Commissioner, in writing, to treat his objection made under regulation 42 as an appeal and forward it to the Supreme Court.

(2) A request made under sub-regulation (1) shall be accompanied by a fee of R1, 000 in respect of each separate assessment.

(3) The fee shall be refunded to the taxpayer if the assessment is reduced either by amendment or as a result of the decision of the Supreme Court.

Reference to Court

45.(1) The Commissioner shall within ninety days after receiving the taxpayer's request deliver to the Supreme Court a submission setting out his reasons both on facts and on law in support of his decision to disallow the taxpayer's objection and forthwith serve a copy of the submission on the taxpayer or his authorized agent.

(2) The taxpayer shall within sixty days after receiving a copy of the Commissioner's submission deliver to the Supreme Court a written defence of his objection and forthwith serve a copy of the defence on the Commissioner.

(3) The Commissioner may, within thirty days after receiving a copy of the taxpayer's defence, deliver to the Supreme Court a written reply to the taxpayer's defence and forthwith serve a copy of the written reply on the taxpayer or his authorized agent.

(4) The Supreme Court shall consider the appeal and may require the parties to the dispute to appear before it to be examined in relation to matters pertaining to the appeal.

Grounds of objection and burden of proof

44 - 46. on any appeal to the Supreme Court under regulation

- (a) The taxpayer shall be limited to the grounds stated in his objection made under regulation 42; and
- (b) The burden of proving that the assessment is excessive shall lie upon the taxpayer.

47. If the assessment has been reduced by the Commissioner after considering the objection made by a taxpayer under regulation 42, the reduced assessment shall be the assessment to be dealt with on appeal.

Reduced assessment

48. The Supreme Court may make such order as it thinks fit in relation to the appeal and by such order may confirm, reduce, increase or vary the assessment.

Order of Court

49. The Commissioner or the taxpayer may, with leave of the Court of Appeal, appeal to the Court of Appeal against an order made under regulation 48.

Appeal to Court of Appeal

50. Where the Commissioner or taxpayer fails to observe the time limits specified in regulation 45(1) or (2) -

Failure to observe time limit

- (a) On failure by the Commissioner, the appeal shall be deemed to have been determined in the taxpayer's favour; or
- (b) On failure by the taxpayer, the appeal shall be deemed to have been withdrawn.

51. The fact that an objection under regulation 42 or an appeal under regulation 45 or 49 is pending shall not interfere with or affect the assessment which is the subject of such objection or appeal and the tax may be recovered on the assessment as if no such objection or appeal were pending.

Pending appeal not to delay payment of tax

Division 3 - Collection and Recovery of Tax

52. The Commissioner may in any case,

Extension of time for payment of tax

- (a) Grant extension of time for payment of the tax;

- (b) Permit payment of the tax to be made by such instalments, with or without any penalty or additional tax, within such time as he considers the circumstances warrant, and
 - (i) In the case of paragraph (a), notwithstanding regulation 38, the tax shall be payable on the date specified by the Commissioner; and
 - (ii) in the case of paragraph (b), the taxpayer shall pay the tax, penalty and additional tax, if imposed, accordingly and if he fails to pay any instalment within the time allowed all outstanding tax together with any penalty and additional tax which has then accrued shall become payable from the date of default.

Persons leaving Seychelles

53.(1) Where the Commissioner has reason to believe that a person liable to pay tax may leave Seychelles before the date on which the tax is due and payable, the Commissioner may serve on the person a notice requiring immediate payment of the amount of tax that the Commissioner believes the person would be liable to pay or is liable to pay if the time for payment had arrived, and the person shall pay to the Commissioner the amount specified in the notice forthwith, but in any event before the person leaves Seychelles.

(2) Where the Commissioner is of the opinion that a person may leave Seychelles without paying tax that he would be liable to pay or is liable to pay if the time for payment had arrived, the Commissioner may apply to the Supreme Court for, and the Court may issue, an order preventing the person from leaving Seychelles without paying or providing security to the satisfaction of the Commissioner for the payment of the tax.

(3) An application under sub-regulation (2) shall be made to a Judge in Chambers and be accompanied by an affidavit in support disclosing sufficient material to satisfy the Judge that it is necessary to make an order preventing the person named in the application from leaving Seychelles.

(4) The Commissioner of Police or the Director General of Immigration or both shall, on receipt of an order of the court under sub regulation (2), take or cause to be taken by any police or immigration officer, such measures as may be necessary to comply with the order including the use of such force as may be necessary, and the seizure, removal or retention of any passport, certificate of identity or other travel document relating to the person named in the order and of any other document authorizing the person to leave Seychelles.

(5) The Commissioner shall serve on the person named in the order, a notice of the issue of the order but the non-receipt of the notice shall not invalidate any proceedings under this regulation.

(6) Production to an immigration officer or to a police officer in charge of a police station of a certificate signed by the Commissioner stating that the tax has been paid or that security has been furnished for payment of the tax shall, subject to all immigration and other requirements being fulfilled, be sufficient authority for allowing the person named in an order issued under sub-regulation (2) to leave Seychelles.

(7) Any person who, knowing that an order made by the Supreme Court has been issued under this regulation for the prevention of his departure from Seychelles, leaves or attempts to leave Seychelles without paying tax or furnishing security to the satisfaction of the Commissioner for payment of tax is guilty of an offence punishable with a fine of not less than R10, 000 and may be arrested without warrant by any police or immigration officer.

(8) No civil or criminal proceedings shall be instituted or maintained against the Government, the Commissioner, the Commissioner of Police, the Director General of Immigration or any other officer, police or immigration officer in respect of anything lawfully done under the authority of this regulation.

(9) Every airline company or shipping company or agent thereof, shall, if so requested by the Commissioner, furnish him with a list of passengers due to leave Seychelles by air or by sea, as the case may be.

(10) Every person who fails to comply with a request made by the Commissioner under sub-regulation (9) is guilty of an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not less than of R10,000.

(11) In this regulation and in regulations 54, 55, and 56 "tax" includes additional tax payable under regulation 72 and additional tax and penalty payable under regulation 39.

Tax a debt due to the Government

54. Tax when it becomes due shall be a debt due to the Government payable to the Commissioner in the manner specified in these Regulations and at the place approved by the Commissioner.

Recovery
of Tax

55. (1) any tax unpaid may be sued for and recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction by the Commissioner suing in his official name or by the Attorney-General suing on behalf of the Government.

(2) In an action for the recovery of tax a copy of a notice of assessment served under regulation 40 (3) shall be received as evidence that the tax is due and payable and the court before which proceedings are brought shall not entertain any plea that the tax assessed is not properly assessed or that the assessment is the subject of an objection or appeal.

Substituted service

56. If a taxpayer -

(a) is absent from Seychelles and does not have, to the knowledge of the Commissioner after reasonable inquiry in that behalf, an attorney or agent in Seychelles on whom service of process can be effected; or

(B) cannot, after reasonable inquiry, be found, service of that process in proceedings against the taxpayer for recovery of tax may, without leave of the court, be effected on him by posting the process or a sealed copy thereof in a letter addressed to him at his last known place of business or abode in Seychelles and service shall be deemed to have been effected on the date on which the process would in the normal course of post have been delivered.

57. (1) where a taxpayer dies without paying to the Commissioner the tax due from him the provisions of this regulation shall apply.

Deceased
taxpayer

(2) The executor or administrator of the estate of the deceased taxpayer referred to in sub-regulation (1) -

- (a) shall, within fourteen days after he becomes vested with the estate of the deceased taxpayer, notify the Commissioner of his appointment;
- (b) shall comply with the provisions of these Regulations with respect to the submission of returns and the payment of tax, penalty or additional tax, in relation to taxable goods or taxable services of the deceased taxpayer on which no tax has been paid; and
- (c) Shall not, without leave of the Commissioner, distribute any asset under his control until he has been notified by the Commissioner that the tax, penalty and additional tax chargeable against the estate of the deceased taxpayer have been paid.

(3) The Commissioner shall have the same powers and remedies against the executor or administrator of the estate of a deceased taxpayer referred to in sub-regulation (1) as he would have had against the deceased if he were alive.

(4) Where the estate of a deceased taxpayer to which this regulation applies has been distributed before the Commissioner has issued a notice to the effect that all tax, penalty and additional tax chargeable against the estate have been paid the following persons shall be liable for any unpaid tax -

- (a) Any heir accepting the succession simply or under benefit of inventory;
- (b) The surviving spouse;
- (c) The universal legatee;
- (d) The testamentary executor, including any person who takes possession of the property of the deceased;

- (e) legatees or donees where there is no person falling under paragraphs (a) to (d);

and the Commissioner shall have the same powers and remedies against any of these persons as he would have had against the deceased if the deceased were still alive but the liability of any of these persons for the payment of the tax due by a deceased taxpayer's estate shall not exceed the total value of the net assets of the deceased's estate distributed to any of them.

(5) If an executor or administrator fails to comply with this regulation he is, in addition to any remedies which the Commissioner may have against him under this regulation, guilty of an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine of not less than R5, 000.

Trustees to notify Commissioner
upon appointment

58. (1) every person, who for purposes of this regulation is herein called "the trustee", who is -

- (a) a trustee in bankruptcy, assignee or other like person of any part of a business the goods of which or the services of which are liable to tax;
- (b) A liquidator of the business;
- (c) A receiver or manager appointed in respect of any assets of the business;
- (d) An agent who has been required by an owner of the business to wind up the business or realize the assets of the owner, shall within fourteen days after he has been appointed as in (a), (b) or (c) or has been required by the owner of the business as in (d), give notice in writing of his appointment or of the fact that he has been required to wind up the business or realize the assets of the business, as the case may be, to the Commissioner.

(2) The Commissioner shall, as soon as practicable after receiving a notice under sub-regulation (1), notify the trustee of the amount which appears to the Commissioner to be sufficient to provide for any tax, penalty and additional tax which is or will become payable by the owner of the business.

(3) The trustee shall not without leave of the Commissioner part with any assets under his control until he has been notified by the Commissioner under sub-regulation (2) and, subject to sub-regulation (5), until he has paid any amount of tax, penalty and additional tax due by the business.

(4) If the trustee fails to comply with this regulation he is, to the extent of the value of the assets which were under his control, personally liable to pay the tax, penalty and additional tax due and payable by the owner of the business and he is further guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine of not less than R5, 000.

(5) Where the assets of the business being wound up are insufficient to pay the costs, charges and expenses incurred by the trustee and the creditors of that business whose debts rank in priority to the costs, charges and expenses also agree, the Commissioner may permit the costs, charges and expenses which, in the opinion of the Commissioner have been reasonably incurred by the trustee, including a reasonable amount as the remuneration of the trustee, to be paid before the payment of any amount due as tax, penalty and additional tax by that business.

59.(1) The Commissioner may, at any time, or from time to time by notice in writing, a copy of which shall be forwarded to the taxpayer at his last place of address known to the Commissioner, require -

Commissioner
may collect tax from person owing money to taxpayer

- (a) any person by whom any money is due or accruing or may become due to a taxpayer;
- (b) any person who holds or may subsequently hold money for or on account of a taxpayer;
- (c) any person who holds or may subsequently hold money on account of some other person for payment to a taxpayer; or
- (d) any person having authority from some other person to pay money to a taxpayer to pay to the Commissioner, either upon the money becoming due or being held, or at or within a time specified in the notice but not being a time before the money becomes due or is held -

- (i) Such portion of the money as is sufficient to pay the amount due by the taxpayer in respect of any tax, Penalty and any additional tax, or the whole of the money when it is equal to or less than that amount;
 - (ii) Such amount as is specified in the notice out of each of any payments which the person so notified becomes liable from time to time to make to the taxpayer until the amount due by the taxpayer in respect of any tax, penalty and any additional tax is satisfied,

And may at any time, or from time to time, amend or revoke any such notice or extend the time for making any payment in pursuance of the notice.

(2) Where a person served with a notice under sub-regulation (1) fails to comply with the notice in accordance with paragraph (i) or paragraph (ii) of the sub-regulation he is, in addition to any penalty for which he may be liable under these Regulations, also liable for the amount which he has failed to pay to the Commissioner.

(3) The Commissioner shall apply any amount recovered under sub-regulation (1) in or towards payment of the tax, penalty and additional tax payable by the taxpayer.

(4) Any person who fails to comply with the requirement of any notice under this regulation is guilty of an offence and, in addition to any penalty for which he may be liable under this regulation, is liable on conviction to a fine of not less than R5, 000.

(5) Any person making any payment to the Commissioner in pursuance of sub-regulation (1) shall be deemed to have been acting under the authority of the taxpayer and of all other persons concerned and is hereby indemnified in respect of such payment.

(6) Any notice to be given under this regulation to the Government may be served upon the head of the Ministry or Department involved and any notice so served shall be deemed to have been served upon the Government.

(7) In this regulation "tax" includes any judgment debt and costs in respect of tax.

60. (1) where there has been an overpayment of tax the Commissioner may apply the overpayment in satisfaction of any other tax owing by the taxpayer and may refund any credit then remaining.

Refund of overpayment and allowance of credit

(2) Where, in respect of tax paid on goods manufactured in Seychelles, the Commissioner is satisfied that the sales revenue on which tax has been calculated is not recoverable by the taxpayer, the Commissioner may allow credit in a future assessment for the amount of tax paid in respect of the revenue not recovered but the Commissioner may assess tax on any such revenue subsequently recovered.

Division 4 - Miscellaneous

61.(1) Every company carrying on a business in Seychelles of dealing in goods or providing services liable to tax shall at all times, unless exempted by the Commissioner, be represented for the purposes of these Regulations by a public officer being a person residing in Seychelles and appointed by the company or by its authorized agent or attorney.

Public Officer of

(2) With respect to every such company and public officer the following provisions shall apply –

- (a) the company shall appoint a public officer within three months after the commencement of these Regulations or where the company commences to carry on business or derives income in Seychelles after the commencement of these Regulations, within three months after it commences business or derives income from that business;
- (b) The company shall keep the office of the public officer constantly filled;
- (c) no appointment of a public officer shall be deemed to be made until after notice thereof in writing, specifying the name of the officer and an address for service upon him, has been given to the Commissioner;

- (d) if the company fails to appoint a public officer when and as often as such appointment becomes necessary, it is guilty of an offence and on conviction is liable to a fine of not less than R5,000 and to a further fine of R20 for every day during which the failure continues;
- (e) service of any document at the address for service, or on the public officer of the company, shall be sufficient service upon the company for all the purposes of these Regulations and if at any time there is no public officer, then service upon any person acting or appearing to the Commissioner to act in the business of the company shall be sufficient;
- (f) The public officer shall be answerable for the doing of all things required to be done by the company under these Regulations, and in case of default, is liable to the same penalties;
- (g) everything done by the public officer which he is required to do in his representative capacity shall be deemed to have been done by the company and the absence or non-appointment of a public officer shall not excuse the company from the necessity of complying with any of the provisions of these Regulations, or from any penalty for failure to comply therewith but the company shall be liable to appoint a public officer;
- (h) Any notice given to or requisition made upon the public officer shall be deemed to be given or made upon the company;
- (i) Any proceedings under these Regulations taken against the public officer shall be deemed to have been taken against the company, and the company shall be liable jointly with the public officer for any penalty imposed upon him; and

- (j) notwithstanding anything contained in this regulation, and without in any way limiting, altering or transferring the liability of the public officer of a company, every notice, process or proceeding which under these Regulations may be given to, served upon or taken against the company or its public officer may, if the Commissioner thinks fit, be given to, served upon or taken against any director, secretary or other officer of the company or any attorney or agent of the company and the director, secretary, officer, attorney or agent shall have the same liability in respect of that notice, process or proceeding as the company or public officer would have had if it had been given to, served upon, or taken against the company or public officer.

62. Where any revenue derived or received by an owner or proprietor of a business dealing in goods or providing services liable to tax, from that business is paid into the account of that owner or proprietor with a banker in Seychelles and that owner or proprietor is out of Seychelles, the Commissioner may by notice in writing to the banker, appoint him to be the owner's or proprietor's agent in respect of the money so paid and so long as the owner or proprietor has an account with the bank, the bank shall be the owner's or proprietor's agent.

- (a) Fails to keep those goods safely; or
- (b) When so requested by the Commissioner, does not account for those goods to the satisfaction of the Commissioner,

That person shall on demand by the Commissioner, pay to the Government an amount of tax which would have been payable on those goods if they had been entered for home use on the day on which the demand was made.

89. Entries in the form prescribed by notice by the Commissioner shall be made and passed for all goods imported into Seychelles:

Entries

Provided that goods being the personal baggage of passengers in any aircraft or ship may, subject to any condition as the Commissioner may by notice impose, be imported or exported without entry.

90. Entries of imported or exported goods shall be made by delivery of the completed forms of entries by the importer or exporter to the Commissioner, and any person making any entry shall, if so required by the Commissioner, answer questions relating to the goods referred to in the entries.

of entry

91. Entries shall be passed by the Commissioner and on the passing of the entry, the goods shall be deemed to have been entered, and any entry so passed shall be the warrant to the officer for dealing with the goods in accordance with the entry.

Passing
entries

92. Where any security is required to be given, such security shall be given by bond or guarantee or cash deposit or all or any of those methods:

Type of security

Provided, that in each case the security shall be approved by the Commissioner.

General
security

93. Where security is required for any particular purpose, the security may, by authority of the Commissioner, be accepted to cover all transactions for such time and for such amount as the Commissioner may approve.

94. All bonds given under Regulation 92 may, after the expiration of 3 years from the date thereof, or from the time specified for the performance of the conditions thereof, whichever may be the later date, be cancelled by the Commissioner of security

Fresh
security

95. If the Commissioner shall, at any time, be dissatisfied with the sufficiency of any security previously given, he may require a fresh security, and a fresh security shall be given accordingly.

Forms of security

96. The forms of security provided to the Commissioner shall be security sufficient for all the purposes of a bond or guarantee under these Regulations, and, unless otherwise provided therein, shall bind the subscribers thereto jointly and severally for the full amount.

Effects of security
proceedings

97. Where any security is given to the Commissioner under these Regulations, the production thereof without further proof, in any proceedings in which the security is sued upon by the Commissioner shall entitle the Commissioner to judgment for their stated liability against the persons appearing to have subscribed such security unless they prove compliance with the conditions thereof, or that the security was not subscribed by them, or release or satisfaction.

Entries to specify certain matters

98. All entries in respect of imported goods shall specify whether they are -

(a) for home use;

(b) for warehousing; or

(c) for transshipment.

Provisional
entry

99. Where the importer of any goods is unable immediately to supply the full particulars required for making an entry and makes a declaration to that effect before the Commissioner either the Commissioner may authorize him to make a provisional entry, and he shall then pay the tax as assessed by the Commissioner, or the Commissioner may refuse to release the goods.

Complete
entry

100. (1) Within 3 months, or such longer period as the Commissioner may permit, from the passing of a provisional entry the importer of the goods shall make a complete entry thereof.

(2) A complete entry of the goods included in a provisional entry shall be made as a supplement to the provisional entry.

(3) If a complete entry of the goods included in a provisional entry is not made within the time specified in sub-regulation (1) the Commissioner shall have the power to make a final assessment.

101.(1) Within 30 working days after completing discharge, the importer shall make a full and complete entry and shall either pay the tax due on the goods, or shall duly warehouse the goods, or, if the goods be free of tax, shall so enter the goods, and in default of such entry being made and of the goods being removed within 30 working days from the date of the completion of discharge, the goods, if suitable for storage in the Government Warehouse, shall be removed by the agent of the aircraft or ship or other approved person to the Government Warehouse to be detained there until due entry has been made, or the goods confiscated by the Commissioner.

Entry and default in entry

(2) All goods which cannot be removed to the Government Warehouse in terms of sub-regulation (1) and which remain on the wharf for one month after the period of 30 working days referred to in sub-regulation (1) shall be confiscated by the Commissioner:

Provided that in case of necessity, the Commissioner may order the confiscation of any such goods at any time during such period on due notice being given to the parties concerned.

102. (1) Goods confiscated or taken possession of by the Commissioner under regulation 101 shall be disposed of in accordance with directions given by the Principal Secretary.

Disposal of confiscated
goods

(2) Notwithstanding sub-regulation (1), the Minister may instruct that goods shall be destroyed or shall be used or reserved for the public service or otherwise dealt with in the best interests of revenue.

(3) Where goods are disposed of in terms of this regulation, a person with any rights in those goods shall not be entitled to an accounting or to compensation for their value.

Commissioner
to have access to warehouse

103. The Commissioner shall have access at all hours of the day and night to every part of any warehouse, and shall have the power to examine the goods therein, and for that purpose may break open the warehouse or any premises necessary to be passed through to secure access.

No compensation payable

104. No compensation shall be paid by Government to any importer of any goods by reason of any damage occasioned thereto by access having had under regulation 103.

Re-examination
Of goods

105 Warehoused goods may be re-gauged, re-measured, re-weighed or examined by an officer either by direction of the Commissioner proprio motu, or at the request and expense of owner; and tax on the goods shall be payable according to the result, unless the Commissioner is of the opinion that any loss shown is excessive, in which case the tax shall be paid on the original entry with any reduction which the Commissioner may deem fit to allow:

Provided, that no allowance shall be made for any deficiency on wines or spirits in bottles or casks.

Revaluation

106. Where any warehoused goods which are subject to tax have deteriorated in value they may be revalued on the application and at the expense of the owner thereof, and tax shall be paid according to the result if the Commissioner is satisfied that the deterioration is due to accidental causes.

Commissioner
may remit tax

107. The Commissioner may remit any tax in respect of:-

- a) refuse, damaged or surplus goods destroyed pursuant to regulation 163 of the Customs Management Regulations 2006; or
- b) any warehoused goods destroyed by the Director General of Customs in accordance with regulation 164 of the Customs Management Regulations, 2006.

Division 3 - Exportation of Goods Imported into Seychelles for Export and Clearance of Aircraft and Ships

108. This Division applies to goods imported into Seychelles for export.

Application
of this Division

109. Where any goods entered for export are not thereafter shipped according to the entry, the exporter shall immediately report the fact, and shall amend the entry for the goods not later than 24 hours or such longer period as the Commissioner may determine after the clearance of the aircraft or ship.

Short shipped
Goods

110. The Commissioner may require the owner to produce documents for any goods entered for export, and in the case of goods subject to the control of Customs Division, the Commissioner may ask for security that the same will be landed at the place for which they are entered or otherwise accounted for to his satisfaction.

Production of documents or security

111. The master of every aircraft or ship shall after clearance -

Missing goods to be accounted for

- (c) For transshipment to another aircraft or ship.

Stores may be taken free of tax

114. Where stores are bona fide required for the master, crew or passengers of any aircraft or ship leaving Seychelles they shall, if taken from any bonded warehouse, be allowed to be taken free of tax.

Amount of stores or fuel may be restricted

115. (1) Where the amount of goods from a bonded warehouse applied for by the master or agent of any aircraft or ship in pursuance of regulation 180 of the Customs Management Regulations 2006 is, in the opinion of the Commissioner, in excess of the amount which should normally be required for the purpose of the application, the Commissioner may restrict the amount to be taken free of tax to such quantity as he shall consider fair and reasonable in the circumstances.

(2) The shipment of tax-free stores or fuel under these regulations is restricted to vessels of not less than 20 tons net tonnage registered departing for a destination outside Seychelles.

Bond required

116. The master or agent of any aircraft or ship applying to be allowed to take stores or fuel out of any bonded warehouse and free of tax shall give to the Commissioner a bond with one sufficient surety residing in Seychelles for three times the amount of the tax on the said stores and fuel, the condition of such bond being that the said stores and fuel shall not be landed again in any port in Seychelles.

Stores under seal

117. All stores taken on board any aircraft or ship free of tax in accordance with these Regulations shall be placed under seal by an officer and shall remain under such seal until the aircraft or ship shall have departed from Seychelles on the outward voyage.

118. If any officer shall place any lock, mark or seal on any stores, fuel or goods taken from a bonded warehouse without payment of the tax as stores and fuel as the case may be on board any aircraft or ship departing from Seychelles and if such lock, mark or seal be willfully opened, altered or broken, or if such stores or fuel are secretly conveyed away before the final departure of such aircraft or ship on the outward voyage, the master is guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine of not less than R20,000 or treble the value of the goods, whichever is the greater.

Penalty for breaking seal

Division 5 - Documents, Refunds, Remissions, Sale and Disposal of Tax Free Goods and Disputes

119. (1) With the Bill of Entry there shall be delivered to the Commissioner, if he shall so require, the original invoices, bills of lading, bills of parcels, policies of insurance, bank payments, packing lists, letters and other documents with entry showing the value of the goods at the place at which they were purchased together with the freight, insurance and other charges on the goods.

Delivery of invoices and other documents

(2) Invoices required under sub-regulation (1) shall be submitted in duplicate and one copy shall be retained by the Commissioner.

(3) The Commissioner may refuse to accept any invoice or certificate which does not satisfy the requirements of this regulation.

(4) Bills of lading shall give the freight charges.

120. (1) Where information has been received by the Commissioner to the effect that goods have been smuggled, under-declared, unlawfully entered or illegally dealt with, or that it is intended to smuggle, under-declare, unlawfully enter or illegally dealt with any goods, or where any goods have been seized or detained, the importer shall, immediately upon being requested to do so by the Commissioner, produce and hand over to him all books, invoices and documents relating to those goods or to any other goods imported by him at any time within the period of 5 years immediately preceding the date of such request, and shall also produce for the inspection of the Commissioner, and permit him to make copies of, or take extracts from, all books or documents of any kind whatsoever wherein any entry or memorandum appears in any way to relate to any such goods.

(2) Any person, not being the importer, who may have in his possession or custody any books, invoices or documents mentioned in sub-regulation (1) shall produce such books, invoices or documents to the Commissioner on demand.

(3) Any person who refuses or neglects to comply with a request of the Commissioner under this regulation, and any person who knowingly produces any false book, invoice, certificate or document, knowingly makes any false representation in regard to the country in which any goods were grown, produced or manufactured or makes any false representation with intent to evade or to contravene this regulation, is guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine of not less than R5,000.

Procedure on under valuation of goods liable to tax

121. (1) Where, upon examination of goods liable to tax, by a custom officer it appears to that custom officer that the goods are not valued according to their true value at the time and place of importation, the Commissioner may require the importer to declare on oath before him the true valuation according to the best of the belief of such importer and to adduce any documentary evidence he may possess in support thereof:

Provided that:-

- (i) where it appears to the Commissioner, whether such oath as aforesaid shall have been required or not, that such goods have been declared at a value below their true value at the time and place of importation, he shall assess the value of the goods;
- (ii) in case of dispute, the goods shall be examined by two competent persons one of whom shall be appointed by the Commissioner, and the other by the importer; those two persons shall, before entering into the inquiry select an umpire, and shall then declare on oath before the Commissioner what is the true value of such goods at the time and place of importation, and in case those persons shall not agree, then the declaration of such value on oath, as aforesaid, of the umpire shall be final.

(2) If any importer shall fail within 3 days from his being required so to do make an appointment as herein before provided, or if no declaration shall be made by the persons appointed as aforesaid, or by the umpire selected by them, within 3 days from their appointment or selection, as the case may be, then, in any case, the declaration of the person appointed as aforesaid by the Commissioner shall be final.

(3) This regulation shall not apply in cases where the Commissioner is of the opinion that any evasion of the provisions of these Regulations has been committed or attempted.

Abatements, Remissions and Refunds

122. Where goods have been damaged, pilfered, short-shipped, lost or destroyed during the voyage or whilst under the control of the Taxation Division or where tax has been paid through an error of fact or an erroneous construction of the law, the Commissioner may make a refund, rebate or remission of tax, as the case may be, to the owner of the goods.

Refunds

123. (1) Where any tax or charge has been levied and paid and repayment of such tax or charge, or of any portion thereof is claimed on the ground that -

Claims and refunds

- (i) the tax or charge was levied or paid under an erroneous construction of the law or from mathematical error, no repayment of such tax or charge or of any portion thereof shall be made by the Commissioner when such claim is made after 6 months from the date of the payment; or
- (ii) the goods in respect of which the tax or charge was levied or paid have been damaged, pilfered, short-shipped, lost or destroyed during the voyage or whilst under the control of the Taxation Division, no repayment of such tax or charge or of any portion thereof shall be made by the Commissioner unless such claim is made within 14 days from the date of payment and is supported by a report made prior to the goods being released from the control of the Taxation Division by an officer of the Taxation Division appointed for this purpose by the Commissioner.

(2) No claim for repayment of tax shall be entertained by the Commissioner when the goods in respect of which the claim is made have been sold or disposed of prior to the claim.

(3) When any tax has been short-levied or erroneously refunded, the person who should have paid the amount short-levied or to whom the refund has erroneously been made shall pay the amount short-levied or repay the amount erroneously refunded on demand being made by the Commissioner within 3 years from the date of the short-levy or of the refund.

Sale or Disposal of Tax Free Goods

Sale of Government and certain other goods

124.(1) All goods which have been imported free or partly free of tax on the ground that they are the property of the Government or of any company, firm or individual privileged by contract or otherwise to import such goods free of tax shall, in case of the sale or other disposal thereof, be liable to and be charged with tax on the proceeds of the sale or the value of the goods, as determined under Regulation 85, unless the approval of the Minister has been obtained for the sale or disposal of such goods without being liable to or being charged with the tax.

(2) The person in whose charge such goods may be sold or who shall cause or allow such goods to be sold or otherwise disposed of, shall furnish the Commissioner with particulars of the sale or disposal thereof and pay to the Commissioner, the tax which may be due thereon.

125. (1) Whenever any goods upon which the whole or any part of the tax has been remitted or refunded shall be sold or otherwise assigned or shall be applied to purposes other than those which determined the remission or refund of the tax, such tax on the taxable value of the goods as determined under regulation 85 or account on goods exempted from tax, or on goods on which tax has been remitted or refunded

any balance thereof remaining due but for the remission or refund shall become immediately payable.

(2) Whenever any goods which have been exempted from tax shall be sold or applied to purposes other than those which determined the exemption, such tax calculated on the taxable value of the goods as determined under regulation 85 shall become immediately payable.

(3) The Commissioner may claim any tax payable under the foregoing provisions of this regulation from the person who imported the goods or from any person having possession of the said goods.

Disputes as to Tax

126. (1) If any dispute arises as to the amount or rate of tax payable in respect of any goods imported or as to the liability of the goods to tax, the owner of the goods may pay under protest the sum demanded by the Commissioner as the tax in respect of the goods and thereupon the sum so paid shall, as against the owner of the goods, be deemed to be the proper tax payable in respect of the goods unless the contrary is determined in an action brought in pursuance of this regulation.

Disputes as to amount or rate
of tax

(2) A protest in pursuance of this regulation shall be made by writing on the entry of the goods the words "Paid under protest" and adding a statement of the grounds upon which the protest is made, within 60 days of the date the entry was passed by the Commissioner and, if the entry relates to more than one description of goods, the goods to which the protest applies, followed by the signature of the owner of the goods or of his agent.
